Epilepsy 20 Years.

A POLICY OF POSTPONEMENT

And Hesitation Rules the Business of Wall Street-The European and Cuban Political Situations the Chief Unsettline Tendencies Senator Teller's Position of the National Bank Question Reviewed by the Eminent Financier.

Special Correspondence. NEW YORK, April 11.—Affairs in Wall street remain quiet. Money is returning from its temporary transfer to the country for April settlements, but the expected benefit from that source has not yet appeared. Several minor occurrences appear to have contributed to the postponement of operations. The wild fluctuations in Tobacco stock have produced an unsettled feeling. The reports of the commercial agencies, for the first quarter of 1896, make an unexpectedly unfavorable exhibit, with the effect of encouraging the peasimistic feeling entertained in come quarters. The London market has been dull, and its operations have, on-the whole, been unfavorable to New York. The still unsettled condition of European politics also continues to hole in check foreign operations in our securities. The renewal of exports of gold has contributed its quota towards discouraging buying transactions. Those shipments, it is true, are not a surprise, for they are matural to the season; but, under the existing currency derangements, they have an effect which was not felt in normal times; for they mean the locking-up or legal tenders in the treasury, which have already accumulated to $112,000,000, with a certainty that the sum will be materially increased before the spring exports of specie cease. The relations between Washington and Madrid have a tendency to produce timidity in financial operations. The Cuba resolutions passed this week by such large majorities in both houses of Congress, it is true, have no other force than as a declaration of sentiment. They cannot compel action by the administration; and they were doubtless intended mainly for effect in politics; but it is impossible to say whether the President may regard it as a duty to his party to take action from a like party motive. The Venezuela episode is evidence that the President is capable of bold action when he thinks his party is menaced. In any event, when nime-tents of, a legislature declare themselves in such terms as were uttered in the Cuba resolutions of last Monday, the country against which such a protest is made cannot but regard it as contributing to animosities between the two nations—concerned. Contingencies like these are, for the time being, calculated to unsettle confidence in the financial markets. And, again, although strong hopes are entertained that the Venezuela trouble will be amicably settled, yet the shadow of disturbing possibilities still hangs over that sensitive question.

This is the group of unsettling contingencies using a

Teller can so far detach himself from He exclusive absorption in the free coinage question as to remember that we have such institutions as national banks. The senator has made the discovery that the country banks are wont to keep considerable deposits with their correspondent banks. At New York; with the result, as he thinks, of depriving their customers of needed accommodation and making their means available for speculation in Wall street. He informs the senate that "last September $200,000,000 of this outside money was tied up in New York" and that 75 per cent of that amount was "used in stock speculation." Had he possessed the statistical equipment which befits a senator he would have been aware that the comptroller of the ourrency regorts the cash reserves in the New York national banks, on the 28th of last September, at $125,500,000; and he would have been further aware that $110,400,000 of that sum was required for the lawful reserves of our city banks; leaving but $15,100,000 which could concelvably be accredited to the deposits of country banks about which he shows so much concern. Instead, therefore, of $150,000,000 of country money being used here for speculation, there could not possibly have been more than one-tenth of that amount, even supposing our banks to have carried, on their own account, no surplus of reserve over the legal requirements. The senator may thus see, after meiting out the dross of exaggeration from his statement, what is the remaining modieum of fine silver in his story.

If the senator knew as much about finance as his exhaustive disquisitions about silver would lead us to expect, he would long since have been aware that it has always been the usage, as between the metropolitan banks and the country banks, for the latter to deposit with their correspondents at New York, Chicago or St. Louis, at a low rate of interest, rather than keep them unproductive and at a loss of interest; and, during other months, they not only withdraw those deposits, but also get large sums of currency from their metropolitan public recei money they get it irrespective of the wants of speculative borrowers: who are always the last to be copsidered and expect to have to take care of them-selves, and generally prove well able to do so. HENRY CLEWS.

Medical statistics have shown that one person in every four has a diseased heart, yet not one in forty gives the matter any attention.

On May 23, '34, the Chicago papers contained special dispatches from Syamore, Jacksonville and Lincoln, Ills, Beloit and Milwaukee, Wis.; Pierre, S. D., and Granite Falis, Minn.; and on June 4 from Petersburg. Ill., Elkhart, Ind., Cherry Creek, N. Y., Minneapolis, Minn., and Chicago, Ill.; each announcing that a prominent citizen had dropped dead from heart disease. It is positively known that at least four of these twelve persons were urged by their friends, within a day or two preceding their death, to take Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure; which it is well known will benefit every oase of heart disease and effect a cure in nine cases out of ten.

But there are people who are saved making mistakes of this sort: Mrs. T. P. Bell, wife of the editor of The Graphic, Ossowatomic, Kas., suffered from heart disease for years, but did not try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure until her physicians had given her up to die, she then took it and is now well. Mr. J. F. Helm a farmer near Vandalia, Ill., had tried the doctors without being benefited and yet it took Mr. George B. Capps, a druggist in Vandalia, an hour to persuade him to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and he fully recovered. Another case was that of Mr. Slins Farley, of Dyesvande him to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and in a month was out at work at his trade, that of a carpenter. So we could multiply cases without limit, but will only add that Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and in a month was out at work at his trade, that of a carpenter. The City of Washington is an object of perennial interest to all patriotic Americans. Not alone because it is the great throbbing heart of the mightiest and grandest republic the earth has ever known, but also on account of its material magnificence. All Americans take pride in its beautiful avenues, majestic architecture, stately homes, and well stored galleries and museums as things of grandeur and beauty in themselves, apart from the historic interest with which they are invested. It is a hope and aspiration of all "Young America," at reast, at some time or other to visit the capital of fifs country. The Baltimore & Offo railroad offers unequalled facilities in aid of this desire by inaugurating a series of popular excursions at reduced fates. A number of persons from this section have availed themselves of these excursions and found the train service and other arrangements in keeping with the liberal policy of the Baltimore & Ohio. The third excursion of the series, via this popular line, is announced for Thursday. April 23. Pleasant side trips have also been arranged to points of interest in and about the capital.
